

Addiction Studies Co-Occurring Disorder Specialist Enhancement

Addiction Studies Announces a program created in accordance with educational requirements specified in RCW 18.205.105 for creation of a Co-Occurring Disorder Specialist Enhancement.

Courses:

ADST 596 075~ A. Disease Pattern of Addiction/Pharmacology of Alcohol & other Drugs ~ 3 credits

ADST 596 076~ B. ASAM, Relapse, & Confidentiality ~ 3 credits

Courses are offered each quarter, fall, winter, and spring. (a new registration form will be needed for each quarter).

Graduate Application Fee: $31.00

Per Credit Fee for Courses.

Books: No required books all materials are included in the courses.

How to apply:

Applicants must hold a DOH License as required under RCW 18.205.105 ~ please see the Department of Health Co-Occurring Disorder Specialist Enhancement application for more information on the requirements:

<https://www.doh.wa.gov/LicensesPermitsandCertificates/ProfessionsNewReneworUpdate/CoOccurringDisorderSpecialistEnhancement/ApplyforanEnhancement#heading39070>

1. Prospective students complete the Graduate Non-Matriculated Application PDF. <https://www.ewu.edu/apply/non-degree/> the fee for this application is $31.00.
2. Students are required to send Official Transcripts for Undergraduate work to Graduate Programs along with the Non-Matriculated Application.
3. Prospective students register using the Registration and Override Form. This form will be sent in with the Non-Matriculated Application. Once approved, students will be registered for the quarter when the current quarter general registration begins. Check the EWU Academic Calendar for specific dates EWU Academic Calendar
4. Once courses are completed and grades are posted, students will be emailed a certificate of completion from Addiction Studies.
5. Any other questions? Contact Addiction Studies gcreasman@ewu.edu

Please note, students in this program are not eligible for financial aid at this time.

ADDICTION STUDIES

gcreasman@ewu.edu; www.ewu.edu

Eastern Washington University is committed to affirmative action and equal opportunity.