State disciplines health care providers

OLYMPIA -- The Washington State Department of Health has taken disciplinary actions or withdrawn charges against the following health care providers in our state.

The department's Health Systems Quality Assurance Division works with boards, commissions, and advisory committees to set licensing standards for more than 80 health care professions (e.g., dentists, nurses, counselors). Information about disciplinary action taken against medical doctors and physician assistants can be found on the Washington Medical Commission \(WMC\) website. Questions about WMC disciplinary actions can be sent to media@wmc.wa.gov.

Information about health care providers is on the agency website. Click on "Look up a health care provider license" in the "How Do I?" section of the Department of Health website (doh.wa.gov). The site includes information about a health care provider's license status, the expiration and renewal date of their credential, disciplinary actions and copies of legal documents issued after July 1998. This information is also available by calling 360-236-4700. Consumers who think a health care provider acted unprofessionally are encouraged to call and report their complaint.

Benton County

In June 2022 the secretary of health denied the home care aide license application of Arlette Soledad Gonzalez (HM60399371). In June 2021 Gonzalez allegedly admitted receiving $12,000 from a vulnerable adult at the assisted living facility where she worked.

In June 2022 the secretary of health granted with conditions a certified nursing assistant license to Briana Ang Gutierrez (NC61032994). Gutierrez agreed to the conditions, which include a substance use monitoring program evaluation. In 2020, Gutierrez was charged with driving under the influence, reckless endangerment, and resisting arrest in Yakima County District Court.

Clark County

In June 2022 the Unlicensed Practice Program notified Michelle Smith of its intent to issue a cease-and-desist order. Smith, the owner of "Recovery is the New Black," allegedly represented herself as a co-occurring disorder specialist, mental health counselor, forensic psychologist, social worker, and counselor. She has never held licenses for any of those professions in Washington state.

Jefferson County

In June 2022 the secretary of health granted with conditions a substance use disorder professional trainee license to Amyr Kae Lorenzo (CO61264033). Lorenzo, who agreed to the conditions, will be on probation for three years, practice with professional supervision, and provide quarterly performance reports. In 2019, Lorenzo was convicted of assault and reckless endangerment in Jefferson County Superior Court.

King County

In June 2022 the secretary of health ended conditions on the marriage and family therapy credential of Michael Wayne Baker (LF60710468).

In June 2022 the Chiropractic Commission charged chiropractor Daniel Brighton Thompson (CH00003013) with unprofessional conduct. When a Department of Health investigator went to Thompson's clinic to conduct a site visit, he allegedly swore at the investigator and ordered him to leave. The investigator sent two letters asking for an explanation, but Thompson has not responded in writing with an explanation.

In May 2022 the secretary of health denied the medical assistant phlebotomist application of Jack Hoang-Nghia Pham (PC61255180). Between 2013 and 2021, Pham was convicted of multiple felonies and gross misdemeanors, including theft, reckless driving, and domestic violence.

In June 2022 the Nursing Commission withdrew charges against licensed practical nurse Lidia Tadese Gebreab (LP60573363).

In June 2022 the Nursing Commission withdrew charges against licensed practical nurse Irene Wairimu Waithera (LP60942225).

In June 2022 the Unlicensed Practice Program notified Elizabeth Poinana, who does business as Complete Home Care, of its intent to issue a cease-and-desist order. Poinana allegedly does not hold a license to operate an in-home services agency but has been operating under that name since May 2019.

Okanogan County

In June 2022 the Chiropractic Commission charged chiropractor John Herbert Hammer (CH00003140) with unprofessional conduct. Hammer allegedly temporarily closed his business without notifying patients or staff. He also allegedly did not keep chart notes and failed to supply copies of patient records or an explanation to investigators.
