Washington State Death with Dignity (DWD) Act

*Pursuant to the DWD Act, RCW 70.245.190, individual providers and facilities may choose whether or not to participate in the DWD Act. “Participate” means to perform the duties of the attending qualified medical provider, the consulting qualified medical provider, or the counseling function under the DWD Act.

Allows providers to participate in the Death with Dignity Act at the hospital*

Regardless of whether or not a hospital participates in the DWD Act, the hospital supports providers to:

- Certify that a patient has a terminal disease and provide the patient information about the medical prognosis pursuant to documentation required under the DWD Act.
 - Give information about the DWD Act to a patient upon request, including information about what relevant resources are available and how to access them.
 - Document a patient’s first written request for medication that the patient may self-administer to end their life in a humane and dignified manner in the patient’s medical record per the DWD Act
 - Refer or transfer care of a patient to another attending or consulting qualified medical provider.
- Provides death with dignity educational materials
 - Hospital pharmacies are permitted to dispense prescriptions in accordance with the purposes of the DWD Act.
 - Permits patients to self-administer DWD medication at the hospital

Comments; limitations on services; other services:

Virginia Mason Franciscan Health provides high quality health care to everyone in our care, recognizing each person's inherent dignity as a unique expression of life. We value informed consent and all clinicians are supported in disclosing all options with their patients, including interventions not available at our facilities in a non-directive manner with a safe transfer of care when requested. VMFH does not participate in the Washington State Death with Dignity Act at any of our facilities.

Virginia Mason Franciscan Health provides care to all patients across the lifespan. End of life care is provided to all patients, regardless of their participation under the act, and our clinicians seek to ensure patients are kept as free of pain as possible so that they may die comfortably and with dignity. Virginia Mason Franciscan Health honors patient's advance directives, including those that outline a preference to forgo life-sustaining treatments.

Extraordinary means to sustain life need not be utilized when death appears to be imminent and inevitable.
